.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a writ, order or direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of mandamus declaring the letter No.SE/OP/MBNR/SAO/HT/D.No.187/2000 dated 30-3-2000 of the respondent as highly illegal, arbitrary, unjust, improper and consequently set aside the same.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.BADANA BHASKARA RAO

Counsel for the Respondent : SMT. M.VINOBA DEVI, STANDING COUNSEL FOR A.P.TRANSCO

The Court made the following

ORDER

This matter had been coming up earlier for hearing and on the letter filed by the counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner, dated 2-8-2004, the matter was listed for hearing on 30-8-2004. On that day, none appeared on behalf of the petitioner and therefore, the matter had to be adjourned. Even when the matter came up again today, a request has been made on behalf of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, seeking further adjournment on the ground that the counsel is engaged in other court. I am not satisfied with the same nor there is any justification for further indulgence.

The Writ Petition is, therefore, dismissed for default. No costs.
